(Belated) Happy New Year 2017!
From James DeMeo and OBRL

Blue Haze at Twilight, over the Cascade-Siskiyou Monument. The OBRL Research and Educational Center is located inside this Monument, a nature preserve and protected enclave, dominated by a mature pine-cedar forest. Our Summer 2017 Seminar will be held at this location. (details on page 6)

The OBRL Annual Newsletter is sent out once per year, in late December or early January. Subscribe to OBRL-News or visit the OBRL-Blog for more frequent notices. <http://www.orgonelab.org/OBRLNewsletter.htm>

Here's an account of work at OBRL in 2016 and what's in store for 2017 and the future.

Dear Friends and Supporters,

This year passed with a variety of important activity at OBRL: New publications, lectures, continued laboratory research, drought-abatement with the cloudbuster, a lot of productive activity and work. We also initiated a new fundraising effort, keeping our internet websites and social media active in presenting clear factual reports. Details on these and other things will be given below.

Your interest in keeping abreast of my work as supported via OBRL is most appreciated. Please consider to make a donation, or to purchase our books, the older and newer ones, for both yourself, as well as for gifts to family, students and friends.

Thanks for your interest,

James DeMeo, PhD

Director of OBRL

1. New Published Books and Articles:

Six New Books were published in 2015, and two more in 2016. You can review the OBRL Newsletter #28 from last year to get a list of the others, but here are the latest additions to our publishing line, with descriptions.

* MARX ENGELS LENIN TROTSKY: GENOCIDE QUOTES: The Hidden History of Communism's Founding Tyrants, in their Own Words,
by James DeMeo

Stalin and Mao were butchers, Marxists admit... "But Stalin and Mao betrayed the original Communism of Marx and Engels!" "Lenin freed the Russian People and if Trotsky had won the power struggle with Stalin, things would have gone differently". So say the Marxists. But a dispassionate examination of the lesser-known writings of Communism's founding tyrants, things they wrote in letters, documents, briefs and telegrams, indicate this benign view simply isn't true. Comrades Marx & Engels advocated war, slavery, racism, ethnic hatreds & genocide. They mocked justice, freedom, democracy & equality, and had only contempt for the poor, workers, farmers & moderates. Comrades Lenin & Trotsky put Marx & Engels into practice, instituting a reign of terror, assassinations, slavery, mass-murder & genocide. They promised democracy but usurped it & imprisoned or murdered dissenters, opponents & "counter-revolutionaries." They seized food from starving farmers, executed surrendered & wounded soldiers, along with random prostitutes, alcoholics, factory workers, tradesmen, peasants, villagers & ethnicities, with massive deportations of men, women and children to the Siberian Gulag - a prison system begun by Lenin, not Stalin. In this exacting review by historical scientist James DeMeo, PhD, the Hidden History of Communism's Founding Tyrants is exposed, in their Own Words. Marx Engels Lenin Trotsky: Genocide Quotes is a must-read book for every thoughtful student and adult, about the false "peace-justice" agendas of the Marxist movements which once again threaten the world's democracies.

To the above description, I can add this book was written to educate young people with interests in Reich, as to dangers of Marxism that Reich only fully realized later in life, during his American period when he became seriously anti-Communist. The book itself has no mention of Reich, however, and stands on its own merits. A Book Review of this title was made by Dr. Laina Farhat-Holzman, here: <http://www.globalthink.net/index.php?IDX=503#bl503> For a discussion on Reich's break with Marxism-Communism, see my other book In Defense of Wilhelm Reich.

 オルゴンアキュムレーターハンドブック Orgone Accumulator Handbook, Abridged Japanese Edition.

This book is a reprint of a Japanese translation of the very early 1st edition of the Orgone Accumulator Handbook. I won't repeat the description as it is Japanese script. The interested reader can review that text at different Japanese websites where it is sold, such as Amazon.jp website. Or from here:

The serious student of orgonomy should have all our high-quality books in their library, as they are excellent scientific information with essays validating and often expanding upon Wilhelm Reich's sex-economic clinical work, with experimental reports corroborating Reich's original orgone energy research findings, and related phenomenon.

You can obtain both of these books, and the others, from the following websites:

Natural Energy Works (USA): <http://www.naturalenergyworks.net>
Amazon.com (USA), Amazon.ca (Canada), Amazon.co.uk (Europe), and BookDepository.com (world-wide, often with free shipping).\

2. Radio Interview on WCBM, Baltimore

I was invited to discuss the subject of "The Forced Collective Suicide of the Western Nations" and the larger issues of the current Muslim mass-immigration dangers. This interview discussion included a review of my Sahasia findings, which document the high levels of social violence across the Islamic world, in a very exact scientific analysis. This interview can be heard as a podcast from the following weblink.

At the top, there is a row of various religious and cultural symbols including a cross, a Star of David, a crescent moon, a triangle, and a circle with a cross. Below this, the text reads "LISTEN LIVE SUNDAYS FROM 8 - 10 PM E". The main title "21st Century Radio" is prominently displayed in large white letters. To the right of the title is a small yellow rocket icon. Below the title, there are three columns of text: "ON-AIR WCBM 680 AM" with a radio icon, "ONLINE www.21stCenturyRadio.com", and "FREE ONLINE ARCHIVES OF OUR SHOWS". At the bottom, it says "with Dr. Bob and Dr. Zoh Hieronimus".

Bluest Water in the World!

13. Continuing Work on the Spectrographic Signatures in Orgone Charged Water, and Rainwater. Update Report Those who have followed my experimental investigations into the spectrographic properties of orgone-charged distilled water will recall how I discovered a far-UV absorption signature in such water, a spectral signature that was not present, or present only weakly, in un-charged control distilled water samples. I presented several papers on this subject to the International Conference on the Physics, Chemistry and Biology of Water, starting in 2009, and continuing in 2011, 2014 and 2015. This line of research also led to the discovery of a related spectral fluorescence signature that covers the near-UV and blue frequencies. This signal was a clear verification of Reich's concepts of "orgonotic lumination", that the orgone energy content of water would, under excitation by UV frequencies as found in natural sunlight, react with a deep and lustrous bluish glow. My lecture PowerPoints to the Water Conferences are available on my Academia.edu and ResearchGate.net websites, and videotapes of those lectures are also available on YouTube:

What is new in these findings for 2016, is that rainwater from a good strong storm continues to show this same set of far-UV absorption and near-UV+blue fluorescence reactions. Weak drizzles have not so far shown these results, indicating they are weakly charged as compared to heavier rains. A variety of blue-glowing phenomenon in nature obtain a clear understanding from these new findings, firstly postulated by Wilhelm Reich, but now objectively demonstrated through spectrographic analysis.

Another aspect under investigation is the strange electrical charging of water that occurs when it is kept stored for a few days inside an orgone accumulator, and a few other novel enclosures developed at OBRL.

OBRL Funding Request

Orgone Biophysical Research Lab

The Recent OBRL Fundraiser presents an overview of my decades of research in experimental orgonomy, very worthwhile to review.

Your Support Requested for Orgonomic Science and Research
from James DeMeo, PhD, Director of OBRL

<http://www.orgonelab.org/OBRLNewsletter/OBRLFundraiser16.pdf>

All the above-described research projects and publishing efforts, as summarized in this and the many prior OBRL Newsletters, were made possible by Dr. DeMeo's own hard work, helped by various volunteer associates, and most essentially by the generous donations and book-purchases of OBRL supporters. Your Financial Support is needed and very much appreciated. We are soliciting funds today primarily for continuing laboratory experimental work at the OBRL, notably for the water spectroscopy and Core field-work underway.

You can either DONATE ONLINE

<http://www.orgonelab.org/donate>

Or you can send a check made out to “OBRL” or to “Orgone Biophysical Research Lab”, and send to PO Box 1148, Ashland, Oregon 97520.

OBRL is an IRS-approved 501(c)(3) non-profit foundation, established in 1978, and your donation is tax-deductible.

Please also consider to remember OBRL in your Testament or Bequests.

Due to the high costs of printing and mailing, Internet and email are today our primary communication methods.

Get on the automated OBRL Yahoo e-lists (if you have not already done so). Help us to keep you informed. Go here, scroll down and add your email address:
